

COVID-19 Protocols and FAQs

---

The Nebraska Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Is Planning for an In-Person Event for the 2022 Annual Meeting

The NAND Annual Meeting committee is dedicated to providing the community with the best possible conference experience for all participants. The NAND Annual Meeting will be hosted in person April 21 – 22, 2022 in Lincoln, NE. For those Nebraska dietitians who may be unable to travel to Lincoln, you will have the option to purchase the recorded presentations after the event.

On-Site Safety Protocols

The health and safety of the NAND community is a top priority. With a focus on coming together safely this April, we will be implementing safety protocols for all in-person attendees.

Frequently Asked Questions

Will proof of vaccination be required?

Proof of COVID-19 vaccinations will not be required to attend the annual meeting.

Will proof of negative COVID-19 test be required?

Proof of negative COVID-19 tests will not be required to attend the annual meeting.

Will there be onsite testing available?

Onsite testing will not be available.

Will there be a mask requirement?

NAND will abide by local and state mask ordinances. The event will be hosted on the University of Nebraska's campus, masking requirements at UNL can be found here.

Will masks/hand sanitizer/disinfectant be available?

Masks/hand sanitizer/disinfectant will not be available at the event. Please plan to bring your own personal protective supplies.

How will NAND support social distancing?

All attendees are encouraged to practice social distancing and follow related signage and instructions throughout the duration of the conference.

Will meals be served at the NAND Annual Meeting?

Yes, NAND will be providing breakfast and lunch on both days of the conference. We are working with the catering team to distribute meal in the safest way possible. Additionally, meals may be eaten outside at picnic tables if weather allows.

Can I attend the NAND Annual Meeting virtually?

A live, virtual option for the NAND Annual Meeting will not be available. However, an option to purchase the recorded presentations after the event will be available. Please see the registration page for more information on purchasing recorded presentations.

What if I am sick and unable to attend?

Tickets will be refundable up to 1 day before the event. For extenuating circumstance please contact Amanda Margiotta at amr417@gmail.com for alternative options.

How will I know if the conference format changes?

The annual meeting committee will reach out to all registered attendees through the email provided at registration. The NAND website will also be updated with any changes to the conference format.

Will quarantine be required if I am traveling from out of state?

No quarantine period will be requirement for attendees/speakers who will be traveling from out of state.

What will happen if someone who attends the event tests positive for COVID-19 during or 48 hours after the conference?

The annual meeting committee will communicate all COVID-19 related information through the email provided at registration. If you attend the event and test positive during or 48 hours after the event, please contact Amanda Margiotta at amr417@gmail.com.

What other measures is NAND taking to ensure a safe annual meeting?

Up until and through the event, this page will contain the most up to date information on the safety protocols being followed for the conference. We will continue to look at ways to enhance our health and safety measures as needed. If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to Amanda Margiotta at amr417@gmail.com.